Only a few soldiers wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were seen in the restricted Petershof area in Guestrow (M 54/T 98) between 8 and 10 September 1951. Source believed that most of the MGB personnel stationed there were not at the post. A German [ ] stated that he supplied [ ] to the troops in the restricted area during the past week. No vehicular traffic was noticed in the billeting area. *

* [ ] Comment. The Petershof area in Guestrow was reported to have been occupied by about 450 troops with black-bordered crimson epaulets in July 1951. The vehicle [ ] that time were indicative of an MGB unit. [ ] There has been no report to the effect that the unit should have been transferred. The present report may be connected with a report by another source who observed trucks [ ] with troops passing through Neuruppin on 10 September 1951 and proceeding toward Neustadt on the Dosse River. See [ ] The [ ] has been periodically reported in conjunction with the MGB unit in Guestrow.
